In this closing speech and in the name of the Faculty of Law of the University of Macau I would like to say a few words about the International Conference on Air Law.

First of all, the Faculty and myself are very glad with the remarkable success of the Conference by the themes involved and by the level of the participation.

Second, I want to thank very sincerely to all the participants as well to the organization of the Conference, in the person of his Coordinator, Dr. Tomás Baganha, by his remarkable task.

And the last (but not the least), to repeat - now with sure that our wishes will be soon reality - that this Conference was the seed planted that will flourish tomorrow into the development of air law studies in Macau.

Thank you for your kind attention.
