Conference: UM Faculty of Law holds conference on civil, commercial and civil procedure law

The Centre for Law Studies of the Faculty of Law (FLL) of the University of Macau (UM) held the 14th International Conference titled 'Celebrating the 25th Anniversary of the Establishment of the Macao SAR: Studies on Macao's Civil Code, Commercial Code, and Civil Procedure Code'.

The seminar brought together law professors, scholars, and representatives of legal institutions from mainland China, Portugal, Mozambique, Angola, Brazil, and Macao, as well as FLL students and faculty, who discussed in depth the development and challenges of civil, commercial and civil procedure law. In their speeches, Mr. Vong Hin Fai, President of the Macao Lawyers Association, Tong Io Cheng, Dean of UM FLL, and Mr. Rui Cunha, President of the Rui Cunha Foundation, emphasised that a sound legal system is the cornerstone of social stability and economic prosperity. They noted that the conference provided an opportunity to review Macao's legal achievements over the past 25 years and to envision the future, hoping that it could foster academic exchanges between jurisdictions and enable participants to explore the modernisation and future development of law.

Mr. Manuel Trigo, Director of the Centre of Law Studies of UM FLL, said that the conference facilitated dialogue between different legal systems and deepened the understanding of legal systems. FLL will continue to strengthen cooperation with the global legal community to support the continuous development of legal education and research. The conference was sponsored by the Rui Cunha Foundation, SJM RESORTS, S.A. and Sands China Limited.

Talk: International Law in Schools: International Law and Multilateral Diplomacy

Speaker: Mr. Guo Xiaofeng

The Faculty of Law of the University of Macau (UM) invited Guo Xiaofeng, Director of the Department of International Organizations and Legal Affairs of the Office of the Commissioner of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China in the Macao SAR, to deliver a talk on 'International Law and Multilateral Diplomacy'. The talk attracted an audience of over one hundred scholars, students, and legal practitioners, and sparked lively discussions. During the talk, Director Guo Xiaofeng focused on three perspectives: the current international landscape, the achievements of China's diplomacy in the new era, and several hot issues in international law. He highlighted the current international landscape, ten achievements and six practices of China's diplomacy in the new era by drawing upon General Secretary Xi Jinping's important speech at the Central Conference on Work Relating to Foreign Affairs, the report to the 20th National Congress of the Communist Party of China and the spirit of the Third Plenary Session of the 20th Central Committee of the Communist Party of China.

Finally, Director Guo analysed three pressing issues in international law: climate change, the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, and the International Criminal Court, and presented China's stance and views on these issues. The students actively engaged with Director Guo, asking questions about the significant contributions of China's Belt and Road Initiative in balancing national and international interests. Director Guo provided them with comprehensive and insightful answers. When asked about his most memorable experiences in diplomatic work, Director Guo shared special moments from past international conferences, which created a joyful atmosphere and provided UM alumni, students and faculty with an in-depth understanding of diplomatic work.
